Developing Our Objectives

- Brainstorming
- Eliminating Possible Projects

Objective: To present information on Delft fraternity eating (Eettafels) using maps, charts, and other graphic displays
Food and drink

First of all, there is the central cafeteria of the TU Delft Buffet Blauw (photo on the left) at the back of the Aula/Auditorium (building 20). It is open for lunch on Monday - Friday from 11:30 - 13:30h and on Monday to Thursday for dinner from 16:30 - 19:30h. You can choose from a variety of hot meals, like a vegetarian dish, a pasta dish, a 3 course meal or even a luxurious wok dish specially prepared for you on the spot.

Most faculties also have their own cafeteria's or canteens and cafés. An overview can be found here. These facilities are generally only open during lunch time. Only the canteen of the faculty of Architecture (called Ketelhuis) on Zuidplantsoen 2 is also open for diner. Opening times of the Ketelhuis are: Monday - Thursday 11:30 - 20:00h and Friday 11:30 - 16:00h.

The Sportcafé at the Sports Centre (building 37) also serves hot meals, but has a limited choice like a pasta dish, spare ribs or sateh with french fries. You are welcome from Monday to Friday, between 15:00h and 21:00h.

Several student societies also have a public eettafel (diner, litt. eating table). Please check this website for further details.

A Lesson On Culture and Teamwork

- Eettafels are a great way to connect Dutch and international students
- Taking advantage of individual strengths
- Keeping everyone on equal grounds
  "As perceptions of inequity increases, satisfaction decreases and perceived conflict increases." [2] - Wall and Nolan

Thank You
