Introduction

• Getting food is one of the first problems international students need to overcome after arrival
  – Questions: Where can I get food from? How do I eat at the campus? Where is the nearest supermarket? All the labels at the supermarket are in Dutch!!?? Where do I go once I get bored of cooking myself?

OBJECTIVES
Clarity
Simplicity
Customized
Immediate time bracket

• Our simple idea: provide a brochure containing all the basics related to finding and eating food
  – The locations of the most relevant supermarkets
  – Food on campus
  – The best restaurants from various cultures
  – Fast food places
  – Home deliveries

How to get food (and an occasional beer) on campus?

- Question:
  What is the most effective way to inform the new students about the dining possibilities on campus?

- Our solution:
  A map containing the locations of all restaurants, cafeterias and bars on the campus
  - The map would be integrated into the official campus map which the students already receive

- Information on
  - Opening hours
  - Selection
  - Prices in general
  - Happy hours
