Adopt an expat!
A social network project

Abstract: Adopt an expat program is for exchange students who want a real-life experience in adapting in Delft, Netherlands. The exchange student will be able to find a "host family," a community of TU delft students or alumni. The whole program will take place on-line, in Delftulip. This is an optional program which will help students easily adapt to a foreign environment.