Welcome to Delft.

At this point we know you are confused and overwhelmed with all the information you receive, and you don't know for all that will happen in the next periods.

But don't worry too much about all; let's go step by step first...

So that's why we have this 2 week guide for you, hoping to help you start feeling like home.

Enjoy your time here, it's going to be one of your best and is going to pass very fast.

Within this guide you will find 6 first topic you should deal and one small push for you to start explore yourself.

First is hard to connect the dots...

=

At the end we want you to see everything like this.
What you can do in The Netherlands without a bike? ...NOTHING!

Let us give you a couple of tips!

- If you are looking for a new 'old Dutch', you can find them at (more options)

- Another options can be checked

Don't forget to buy a lock!
And take the lights with you. In case you do, you can get a ticket for 45 €. You can find the accessories on the bike shop.
RING RING......don't YOU have a dutch number?

Let us help you find what suits you best!

- for the first month
- if you'll stay longer...

For international students could keep both prepaid and contract. For calling home cheaply too!
- Starving? We know how to help you to fulfill that belly

Look at the menu, there are different "dishes" to choose!

Supermarkets

- Albertino
- Long Island
- C1000
- Big Supermarkets

Restaurants

- Looking for something special? Here you have a selection of restaurants for every taste:

  - Indian food: Maharani
  - Chinese food: Peking
  - Greek food: Olympia
  - Italian food: San Marco

Remember that on Thursdays and Sunday a big market, with a big range of products and price, will be placed on the main square. Bring your biggest bag!
"Hallo mein vriend, it is time to know our place that is going to our sanctuary for the whole year

- Is the shower working well?
- Any problem with the kitchen?
- Internet issues?
  - If you have any problems call Duwo immediately!
  They would help you ASAP

- First week
  - Clean your room
  - Make your room a comfortable place to live and rest
  - Buy Kitchen utensils and furniture

You can also check marktplaats.nl, you can find a lot of second-hand stuff that you could find useful
This will be one of the most important things you have to do upon your arrival to TU Delft.

On your welcome package you will see the date, time and place for the registration.

Don’t forget to bring important things as your Passport and certificates.

If you are NOT with a Project, you SHOULD bring your signed contract.

---

Residence Permit

- EU You don’t need it
- Non EU Stay for less than 3 month? Don’t need a R.P.
- More than 3 month? After a week of your registration you will receive your R.P.

---

The registration process will be at Berlagezalen (Architecture Faculty). Near the Survival cafe.

---

If you need to print any documents or copies you can do it at the registration place.
- Now is the time for you to learn some things about Dutch people.

Let us give you a couple of tips!

Dutch Phrases

Hello ("HAL wel") — Hi

Goeienavend ("GOE uhn AVEND") — Good evening

Sjaay ("SHAY")

Tot ziens ("TOD see-n") — See you later

Nod (*) ("NOH") — Thanks

Aankomst ("AHNK ohm st") — Please

---

Dutch Oddities

Frankness: Dutch people tend to just say what they think! They are also not afraid to criticize others. Remember it is (generally) not intended to offend.

Tolerance: The Dutch have a reputation of being tolerant and taking a liberal point of view towards controversial subjects like drugs, prostitution, abortion and euthanasia.

Punctuality: Appointments and schedules are taken seriously in the Netherlands. Arriving more than 15 minutes later than the agreed time will be considered as rude and too late.

---

Tip: English to Dutch Supermarket Words & Phrases

For detailed information, please visit:

http://southholland.angloinfo.com/countries/holland/
Emergency Information

- Phone 112 for serious events
- For medical problems, not immediately life-threatening:
  - (081) 799 96 06 (from 8:00 - 22:00, Student Desk)
  - (081) 251 19 80 (other times; Central Doctor's Office)
- For non-urgent assistance by police or fire brigade:
  - 0999 (contact central Police Headquarters)
- To reach the Organisation from 24/7:
  - 06-539 454-05 (emergencies only)