

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

Fascination

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

Frustration

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

Frustration

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

Problem

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

Research

Hans

“There should enough room to manoeuvre, so that you can turn without taking a piece of wallpaper with you.”

Spatial

Social

Gert-Jan

“And an important thing, a classic I would almost say, that they talk about me instead of to me. That still happens quite often.”

Ko

“Help is always needed, so the caretakers have to come along too”.

Independence

Healthcare

Ko

“Planning and preparing is not something where you say we’re going to go away for a day and grab a hotel, you can’t simply do that”.

Design

The get-away feeling

Accessibility

Independence

A building that cares for the people

The building as an exploration

The architectural solution for physically disabled people

The get-away feeling

The seasons

The get-away feeling

The building

The get-away feeling

The building

The get-away feeling

Embedding in the landscape

Independence

Organic shapes

Independence

Proportions

Independence

Eye-contact

Independence

Layering in the building

A building that cares for people

Unit design

A building that cares for people

Climate

A building that cares for people

Natural soft materials

The building as an exploration

Façade compositions

The building as an exploration

Composing the daylight

The building as an exploration

Composing the daylight

The building as an exploration

Accessible architecture done differently

The building as an exploration