

LANDSCAPE DEVELOPMENT IN THE BORDER CONDITION
the borderland as a cultural interface drawings

MSc Landscape Architecture
TU Delft
June 2017

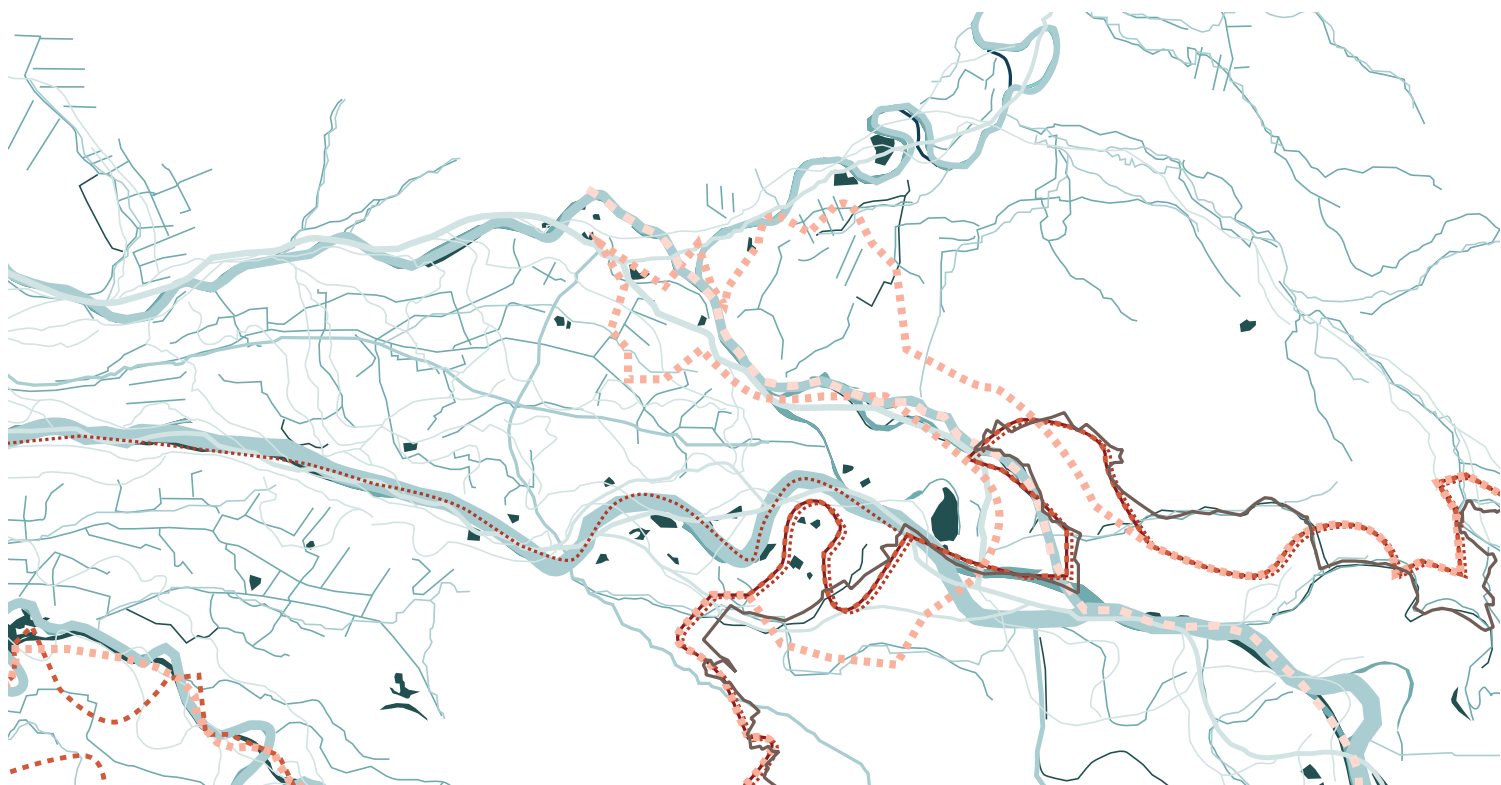

urban growth & geomorphology

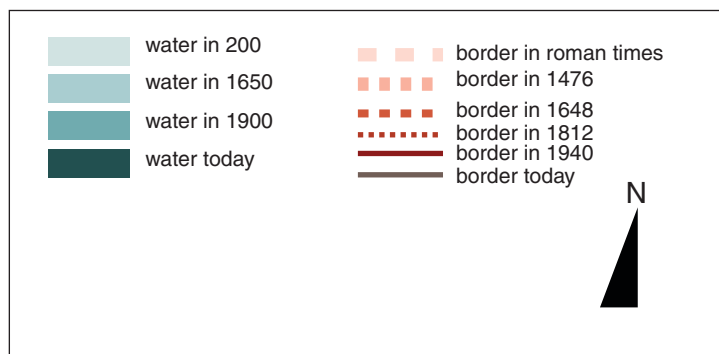

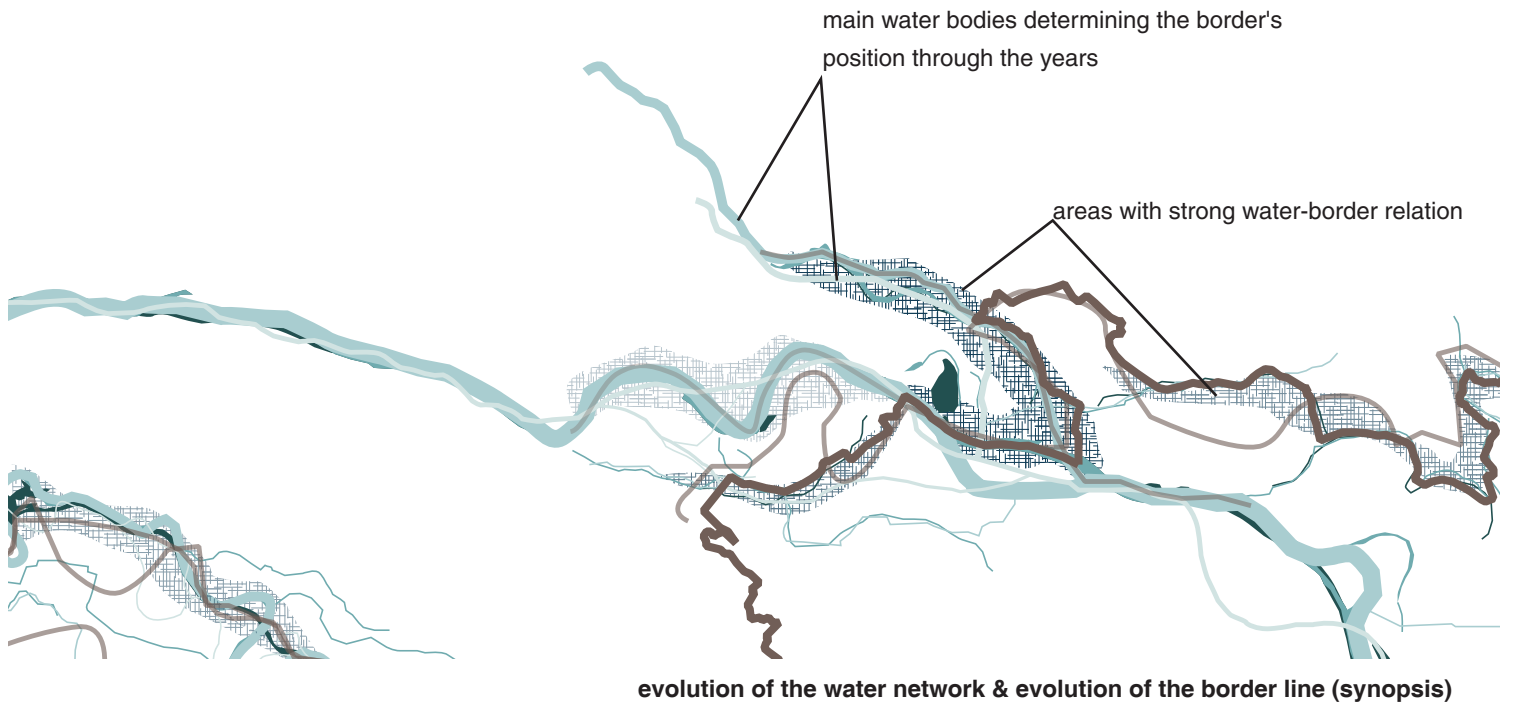

urban growth & geomorphology (synopsis)

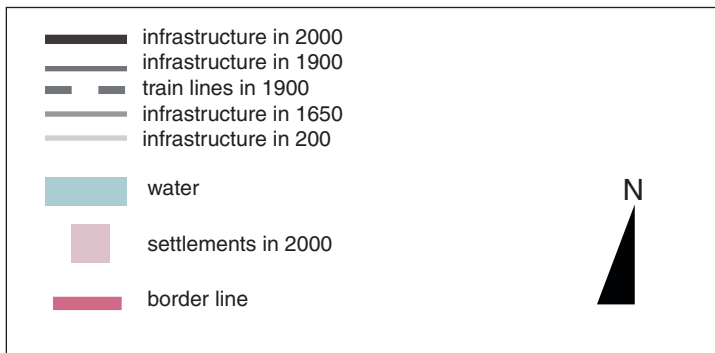

evolution of the water network & evolution of the border line

evolution of transportation networks evolution of transportation networks (synopsis)

connections

connections in the past

shared events and memories

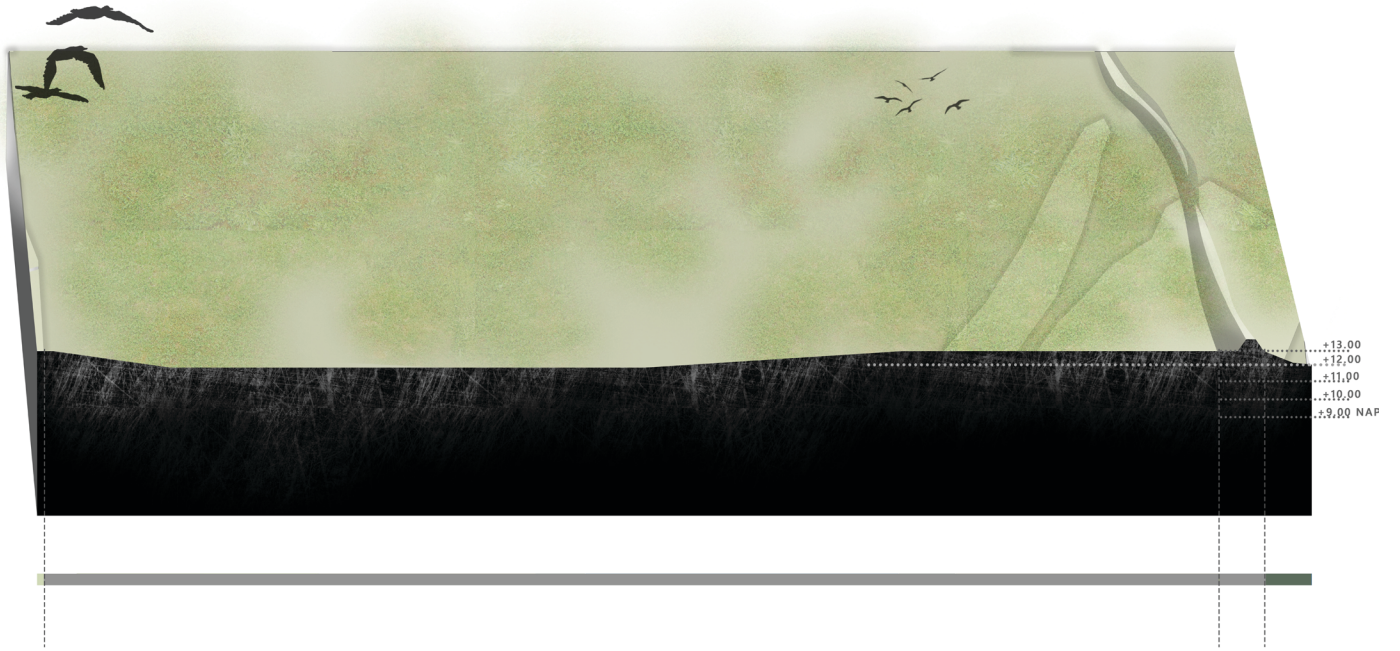

potentials

master plan

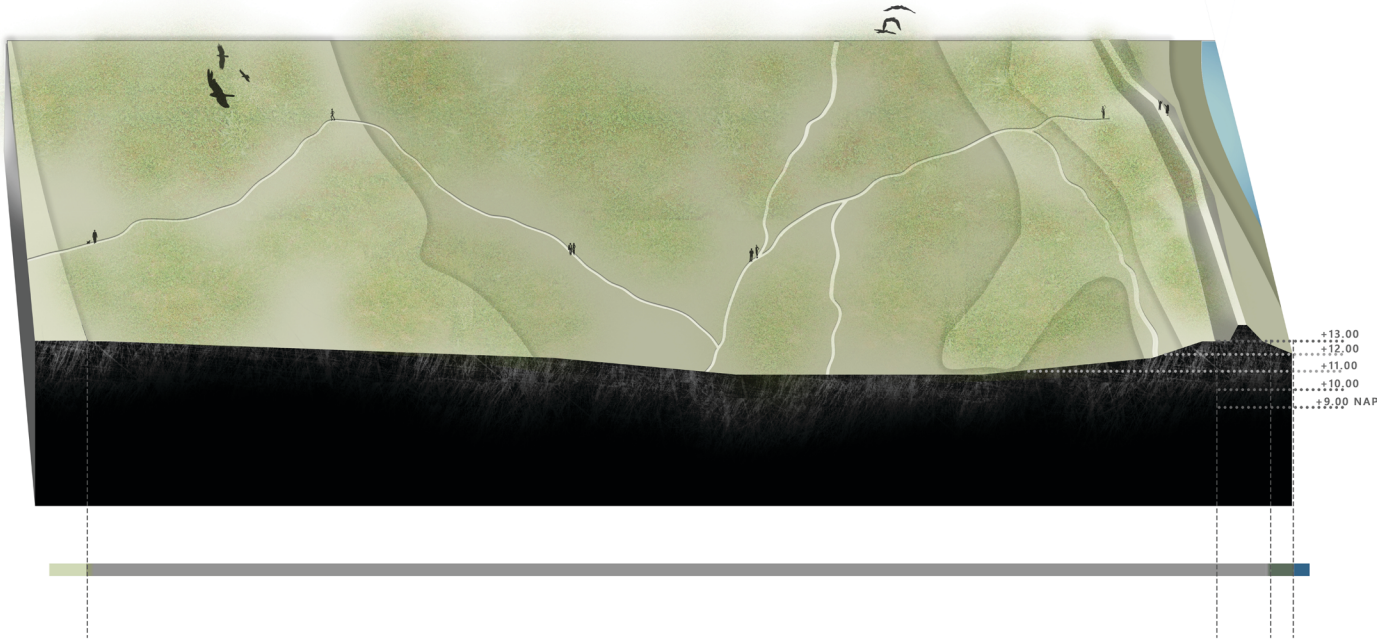

current situation

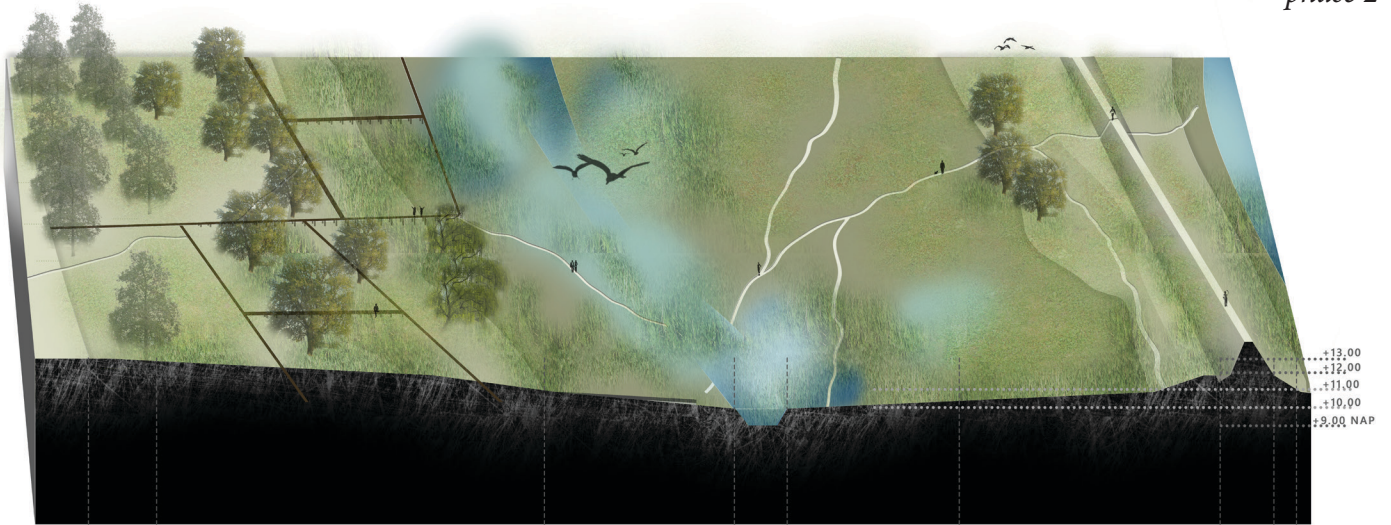

- agriculture
- forest
- swamp
- water
- other

phase 1

- agriculture
- forest
- swamp
- marsh
- water
- other

phase 2

+13,00
+12,00
+11,00
+10,00
+9,00 NAP

bulrush
rich-nutrient
swamp plants

duckweed
rooting, float-
ing, submerged
plants

white water
lily
rooting, floating,
submerged plants

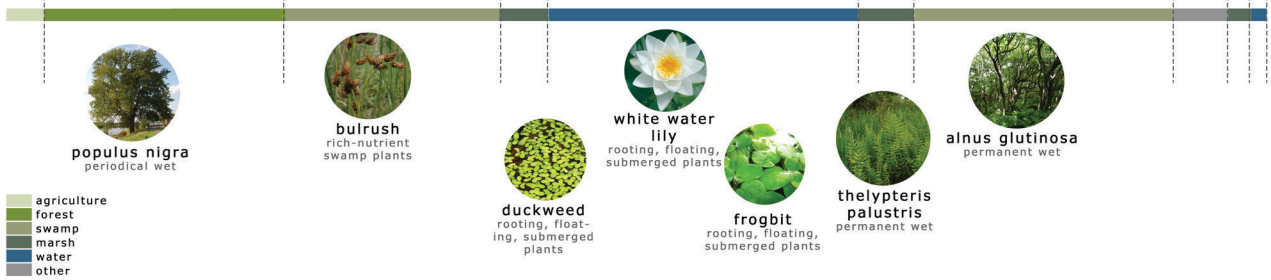

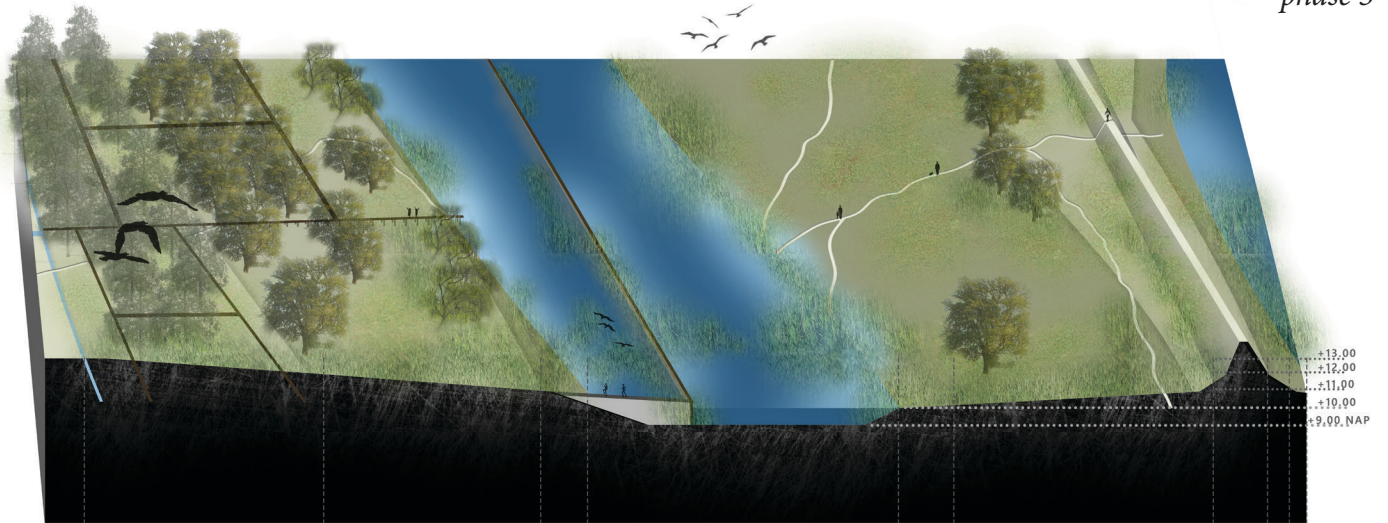

frogbit
rooting, floating,
submerged plants

thelypteris
palustris
permanent wet

- agriculture
- forest
- swamp
- marsh
- water
- other

phase 3

- agriculture
- forest
- swamp
- marsh
- water
- other

overall plan

+9.00 NAP

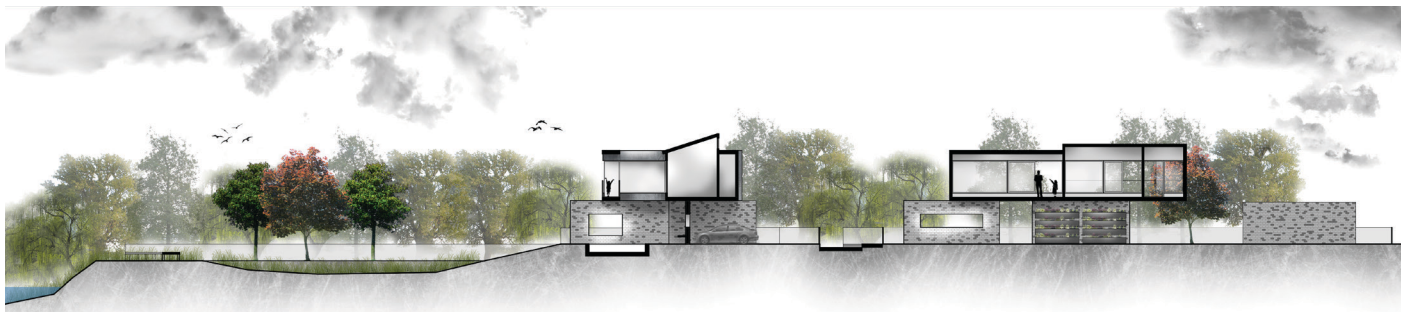

overall plan

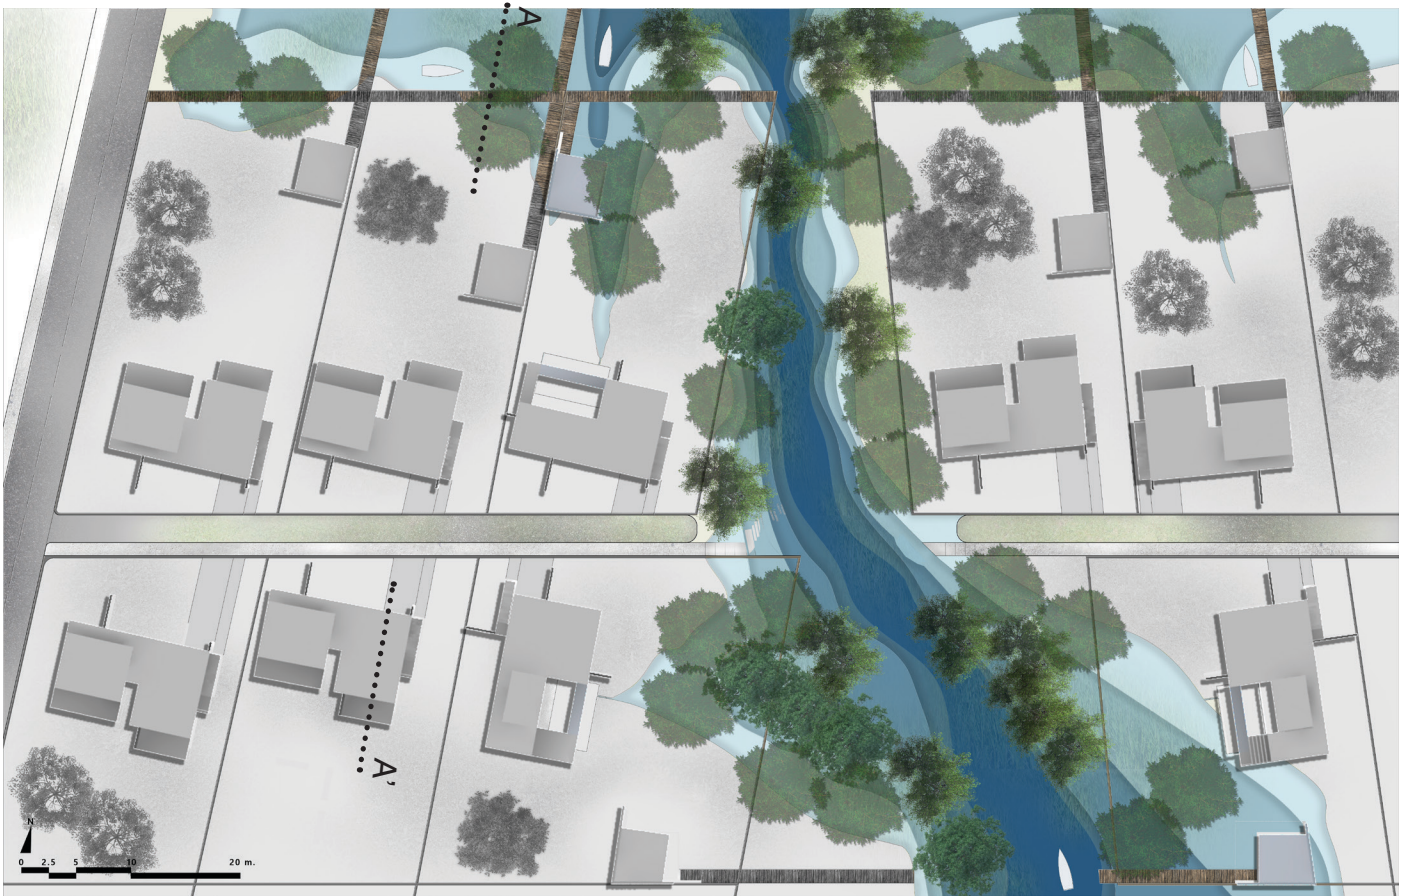

+12.00 NAP

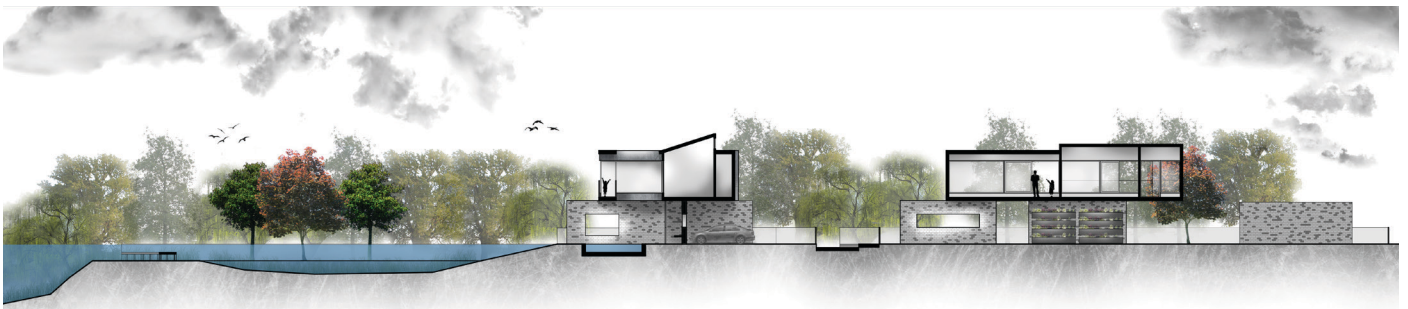

plan of neighborhood +9.00 NAP

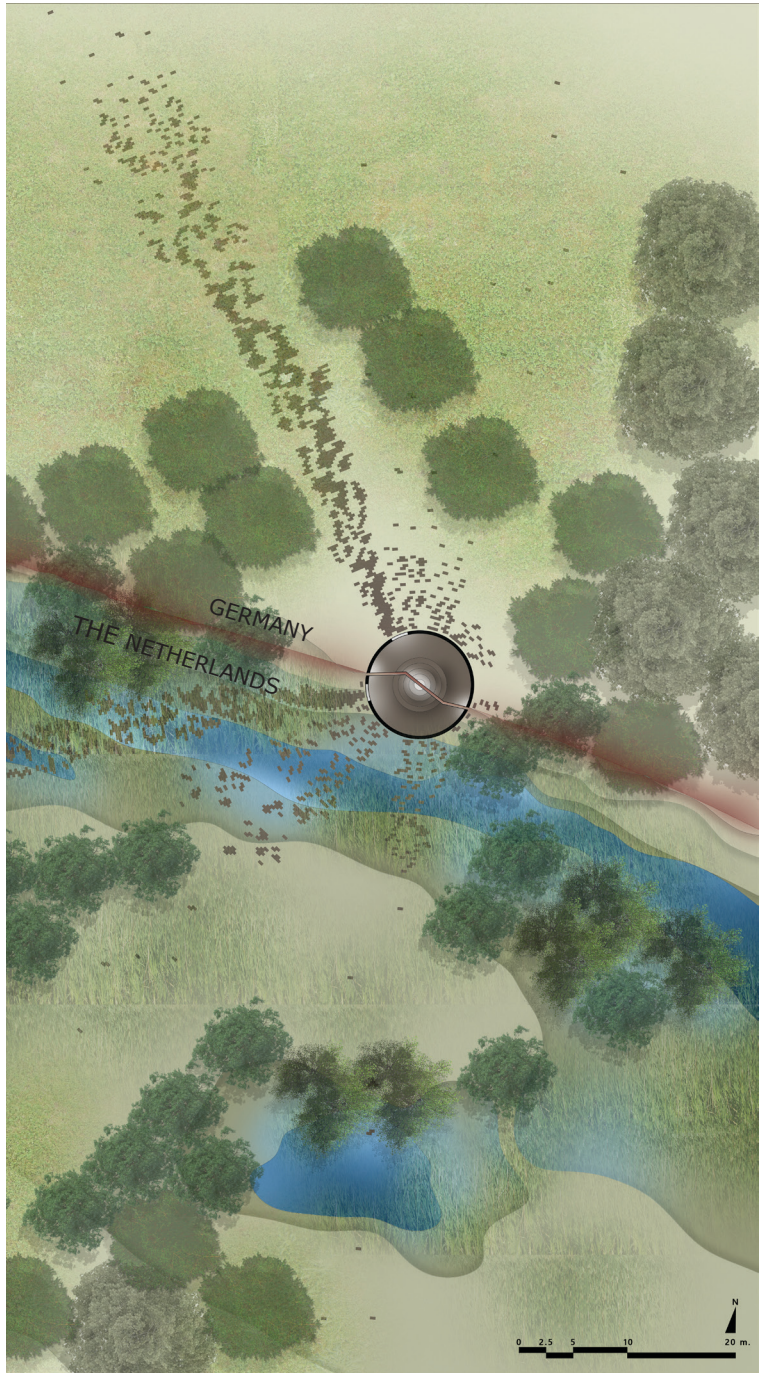

section A-A'

plan of neighborhood +13.00 NAP

section A-A'

plan of the border pavilion +9.00 NAP

proposal for the factory chimney - plan and elevation

