Materialisation

The facade that communicates the level of privacy is added to the basic structure. Special spaces which are defined by the value-tool are either added or subtracted, using different type of facade openings.