Living enclave & home | carrier & inbuilt
- Wrapping housing enclaves for initial improvement and enabling gradual evolution of the individual dwellings
- Decoupling the courtyard to make it usable as part of the neighborhood network and enabling different infills and change over time
- Corner building transform by mutation into flexible units capable to accommodate different functions

Principle revitalization strategy