Rethinking Poldervaart

a time-resistant structure connecting the fragmented landscape

Ilya Tasioula

Mentors: Denise Piccinini
Teake Bouma
Delegate of the Board of Examiners: André Ouwehand
historical development

time-resistant structures of the area

"flowing" between the three centralities _ the orchard _
_ the water square _ _ the meadow _
_time-resistant structures_ time-resistant structures turn into connecting structures new approach

_ holistic understanding of the local character _ strategy penetrate horizontal metropolis
time-resistant structures
activate and connect fragmented landscapes polder parcelization old boezem system _new boezem system_ parts of Midden Delfland time-resistant structure leading to Kethel _expansion over time_ _embrace_ connections with public spaces transparent public spaces the characteristic grid of the allotment gardens pedestrian paths traversing the cemetery Thank you!